

for each line in file `data.txt` set variable salary as second value of line when split by set variable months as third value of line when split by set variable salary as the return value of function `fix format` with the inputs salary set variable months as the return value of function `fix format` with the inputs months print Annual salary is salary · months

